MINISTERING CHILDREN'S LEAGUE.
SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR AND ENTERTAINMENT.

The Hongkong Branch of the Ministering Children's League was very much in the public eye on Saturday, when the annual bazaar and entertainment was held in aid of orphan children, both in Hongkong and England. Judging by the very large gathering that was present, and the rapidity with which the stalls were denuded of their contents, there is every indication that the total of $12,342.93 collected last year will be exceeded this year.

The grounds of Government House, where, as usual, the function was held, were gaily bedecked for the occasion and presented a very animated spectacle. Upon entering, one was met by the sight of several stalls in charge of Chinese young ladies. These stalls had been arranged by the staff and pupils of St. Stephen's College for girls; St. Paul's School, and the Bellios High School. They were replete with toys and fancy articles, specially designed to appeal to the Chinese. A fruit stall, entitled the "Fan Oi," was run by Mrs. Lo Shung and a number of her friends. Mrs. Lung Chai-kwong, the wife of the ex-Governor of Canton, purchased well over $300 worth of goods.

Mrs. Gurner, and the officers, and men of H.M.S. "Tamar" took charge of a number of stalls and other money attracting devices. Mrs. Gurner and her daughter and some friends were themselves in charge of a fancy stall, which contained many articles made on board the "Tamar." The "Lucky Dip," a miniature "Tamar," was empty within half an hour of its opening and had to be replenished more than once. A novel and attractive feature was a wizard's cave, in which Mr. Henke, in the guise of an Eastern Soothsayer, foretold the future. Naval men, also, were in charge of the Chute and the "Shy," two side-shows which received the constant patronage of the children.

Not to be beaten by the Sister Service, the Military had organised two extremely handsome stalls. Mrs. Robertson, being in general charge of these. The fancy stall, in the verandah of Government House, contained a charming variety of children's requisites, made almost wholly by ladies of the Garrison and their children. The Gold-fish stall, an adjunct of the Military stall, did excellent business. During the evening many of the boys carried away bottles of gold-fish which were awarded them for their skill.

The Police stall, under the superintendence of Mrs. McEwen, Mrs. King, was tucked away in one corner of the grounds, but nevertheless, was visited all the afternoon by visitors. The different branches of the League—Victoria Branch (East Point), Kowloon, Peak, and Quarry Bay were each responsible for a fancy stall. The Sweet Stall was organised and conducted by a few girls from the Peak district, and did a roaring trade. Finally, there was the refreshment stall, under the direction of Mrs. Ross Thomson and Mrs. Montague Harston, who were assisted by a small army of very attractively-dressed waitresses. From 4 o'clock, when it opened, until the close this stall was constantly full.

The Hongkong Defence Corps Cadet Company, under the command of Lieut. Beard, and a platoon of Girl Guides were down on the grounds, and the Cadets were inspected by H.E. the Officer Administering the Government.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Ball Room was crowded for the entertainment, which was given at 8.30 p.m. A very bright programme was presented, and those who were arranged to have every reason to be gratified at the success achieved. Great praise is due to Mrs. Harris Walker, who trained the dancers, and Mrs. Mitchell, for her energetic work in getting up the playlet, "Cissie in Toyland." Mr. Grimshaw made an admirable stage-manager, and Mrs. Rose proved an excellent accompanist.

The programme commenced with the Doll Dance, a very effective item, for which the dancers were warmly applauded. Those who took part in it were the Misses D. Ayndell, E. and V. Blackburn, J. Thornhill, E. and A. Rose, B. Eustace, B. Pennington, J. Black, J. Harris Walker, W. Lawson, M. and I. Nolan, R. V. and G. Young, and M. Hanson. During the dance, Miss Iris Thornhill appeared on the stage, and sang "Little Bo-Peep." This was followed by an Irish-Jig cleverly danced by Miss Iris Thornhill (boy) and Miss Ida Rose (girl). A very pleasing item was the Scarf Dance by about a dozen tots, dressed in pink and blue costumes. Miss V. Young was the leading spirit in the dance, and was enthusiastically applauded for her graceful individual performance. Others who took part were the little Misses B. Pennington, B. Eustace, B. Young, G. Young, J. Black, E. Blackburn, W. Lawson, J. and J. Thornhill, E. and A. Rose, J. Harris Walker, M. Hanson and M. Nolan.

The second part of the programme consisted of an amusing little play for children, entitled "Cissie in Toyland." Mr. J. Grimshaw, who played the part of an old-fashioned schoolmistress in the first scene, kept the audience convulsed with laughter. He was ably assisted by his little troupe of children, who did all that was required of them very well indeed. During this scene, Mr. Grimshaw sang a humorous song, the children taking up the chorus and performing a clever ribbon dance. In the next scene, "Toyland," fifteen girls and six boys appeared dressed as dolls and gave several charming exhibitions of dancing. Master Willie Foley, made an excellent "Santa Claus." At the close the youthful performers were greeted with loud and prolonged applause.

The cast was as follows:—
Alcantara—School Children: Nancy McNeillie, Nan Ferguson, Jean Prowse, Jack Gardner, Willie Gardner, and Neil Drummond. Dame Toot: J. Grimshaw.
Tots—Teddy Bear, Willie Gardner; The Golliwog, Jack Gaudner; Dancing Sailors, A. McNeillie and K. ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

UNITED SERVICES LEAGUE.

HONGKONG F.C. 2; R.G.A. 1.

This match took place on the Club ground on Saturday. The gunners were very weak, several of their players being on the sick-list. They arrived a man short and were compelled to take Taylor out of goal and play him in the field, substituting as custodian Jones, who had just finished playing in a second division match. The game was not very exciting, and with practically all the Chinese watching the South China Athletic on the Military ground the Club ground presented quite a deserted appearance.

The Club were the principal aggressors but their shooting was very poor, the ball being kicked high over the bar several times when it could easily have been netted. Early in the game Lieut. Hall got in the way of a hot shot from Richelmann, which might easily have been a goal had it not been intercepted. McCubbin twice stopped Green when the latter was well on the way towards goal, and Black also effected a smart clearance from a dangerous movement by the Artillery left wing. Some good work by the R.A. backs stopped a Club attack, but before the ball could be cleared properly Richelmann obtained possession and placed it in the net well out of the reach of Jones. Shortly afterwards Jones made a very clever save, but Sharman, in an effort to clear, drove the ball back hard into his own goal, thus putting the Club two up. Just before the whistle sounded for half time a fine pass to the Artillery left winger got the ball away. It was centred again neatly, and Green, obtaining possession, made a dash for goal. McCubbin charged him off the ball, but in doing so fell to the ground, and Green, recovering quickly, gave Gerrard no chance with a hot shot at close range.

In the second-half the civilians had several fairly simple chances to increase their lead but failed by faulty shooting. A free kick not far from the penalty area towards the close looked very dangerous, but some good work by Sharman and Hall enabled the latter to ease the situation with a fine kick, which sent the ball well out of the danger-zone. The Army forced a corner but were unable to make use of it, the game ending in a win for the Club by two goals to one.

ROYAL NAVY, 9; MANCHESTER REGIMENT, 0.

The Manchesters were unfortunate to meet the strong Navy team on their first appearance in local football. The game took place on the Navy ground, and from the kick-off there was only one team in it. McNeven, who is probably the best forward in the Colony at the present time, did practically as he liked, and claimed no fewer than seven of the nine goals. At half-time the sailors were leading by four goals to nil, McNeven being responsible for two and Burton and Formelow for one each. In the second-half McNeven started again by putting a magnificent shot, which left the goal-keeper helpless. Shortly afterwards the ball was netted again, but it had been handled on its way towards goal, and a penalty was awarded. McNeven took the kick and made no mistake. The same player was responsible for three more goals after this, the last being very cleverly headed in. A very one-sided match ended in a win for the Navy by nine goals to nil.

ROYAL ENGINEERS, 3; SOUTH CHINA ATHLETIC, 0.

The usual enormous crowd watched this match, which took place on the Military ground. The Athletic quickly forced a couple of corners and had rather hard lines in not scoring. Then the sappers took up the running. Chalmers sent in a hard drive, which Lau Hing Cheong, who played a clever game throughout, had a difficulty in clearing, and Pascal, following up, missed an easy opportunity of scoring by shooting yards over the bar. The ball travelled from end to end very quickly. Play was suspended for a time owing to an injury to an Athletic player, who had to be carried off the field. Townsend got away well but hung on to the ball too long, and his effort was wasted. The interval arrived with the score-sheet blank.

In the second-half the Royal Engineers made many dangerous rushes for goal, Townsend got in another good run, but this time shot high. Waller was responsible for the first goal, for he took the ball from somewhere behind the half-way line right up to the vicinity of the Chinese goal and netted with a hard drive. A very fine goal. Pascal then broke through and the custodian saved, but from this clearance Millard obtained possession and notched a second goal for the Army. A great struggle in the Chinese half of the field, which followed, resulted in Jarvis scoring the third goal for the sappers. The Athletic failed to respond, the game thus ending in a win for the Royal Engineers by three goals to nil.

HONGKONG LEAGUE—DIVISION II.
UNIVERSITY, 1; 88th CO. R.G.A., 0.

The gunners had a weak team out for this match and nearly always looked the inferior side. The University team did not combine very well, owing no doubt to inexperience in league football, but they possess some very speedy forwards who ran round the Artillerymen pretty well as they liked. Had it not been for a very fine display of goal-keeping by Jones, the 88th Co. would probably have lost heavily. When the interval arrived, neither side could claim a goal, but, shortly after changing over, Sammy put the University ahead with an excellent shot which gave Jones no chance. The civilians were always dangerous in this half, and the Artillery goal had some very narrow escapes, but by adopting rushing, bustling tactics the soldiers managed to prevent their citadel from being penetrated a second time. They lost by the only goal of the game.

STAFF AND DEPARTMENTS, 4; 57th CO. R.G.A., 0.

This was an unpleasant, bad-tempered game, and before it came to end a player on each side had been ordered off the field for fighting. The Staff had most of the play, and in the first half Jennings, the 57th custodian, was kept very busy. He was equal to the occasion and made some very fine saves. The Staff faced a strong sun in the first half which was rather a handicap. At the interval, the score-sheet was blank.

The only goal of the match came after the change round. The Staff went off with a rush, and a scramble in front of goal resulted in a corner, from which Kirby managed to score. Kirby had hard lines on several occasions, and had it not been for good work by Jennings the defeat of the gunners would probably have been heavier. Wilgus played a good game for the 87th Co., while Scouler and Knight were conspicuous for the Staff.

FRIENDLY MATCHES.

KOWLOON, 8; QUEEN'S COLLEGE, 1.

In spite of the fact that Kowloon was playing five first team men in the match against Queen's College on Saturday, the College eleven made a very poor show and were seldom able to penetrate the Club's strong defences. In the first half Kowloon scored six goals, to which André contributed four and Hyder and Jackson one each. In the second half Kowloon added two further points to Kowloon's total. The College boys played much better in the second moiety of the game, and a combined effort among the forwards resulted in a goal. Van Langenberg and Lima played well for the winners.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR "OUR DAY" MATCHES.

A meeting of the Management Committee of the Football Association was held in Victoria Barracks on Friday evening, Master May, R.G.A., presiding over a good attendance. The business of the evening was to make arrangements in connection with the charity matches which are to be played next Saturday, November 9th, on the Club ground for the funds of "Our Day." It was decided to play two matches—one in which players of the second division would take part, and the other to consist of first division men. Both matches will be styled "Civilians" v. "Services." The first will commence at 2 p.m., and the selected players are:—

Civilians:—Souza (St. Joseph's); Jackson (Kowloon); and H. Hyndman (St. Joseph's); Hyder (Kowloon); A. N. Other (S. China); and Marel (St. Joseph's); Omar (St. Joseph's); McManus (Kowloon, Captain); Silva (St. Joseph's); and A. N. Other (S. China). Reserves from University and South China Athletic, Colours, St. Joseph's.

Services:—Jennings (87th Co.); Warren (Navy Res.) and Scouler (Staff and Depts.); Lt. Jones (88th Co.); Captain Wain (Staff and Depts.); and Miles (Navy Res.); A. N. Other (87th Co.); A. N. Other (87th Co.); Ellarby (Staff and Depts.); A. N. Other (Navy Res.); and Lt. Millington (88th Co.). Reserves: Neal (Navy Res.) and Knight (Staff and Depts.) Colours, white.

Referee: C. S. M. Fragnall, R.G.A.
The second match will commence at 4 p.m. The players selected are:—
Civilians:—Lau Hing Cheong (S. China); Black (Club) and McCubbin (Club); Leung Tai Fong (S. China); Stewart (Club) and Cheung Wing On (S. China); Kwok Po Kan (S. China); Au Kit San (S. China); Reichelmann (Club); McTavish (Club), and Jennings (Club). Reserves: Ko Kin Fan (S. China) and Chan So (S. China). Colours, R.G.A.

Services:—Crocker (R.N.); Blumfield (R.E.) and Biggs (R.N.); Lt. Barnes (R.N.); Talford (R.G.A.) Captain and A. N. Other (Manchesters); A. N. Other (Manchesters); Townsend (R.E.); Green (R.G.A.); McNeven (R.N.) and Pascal (R.E.) Reserves: Sharman (R.G.A.) and Rogers (R.N.). Colours, white.

Referee: Q.M.S. Allan, Manchester Regt.

The provisional sanction given by the Secretary to Rasmussen and Knight, both of Kowloon, to play for the Club, was confirmed by the Committee.

CRICKET.

LEAGUE CRICKET.

CIVIL SERVICE DRAW WITH THE R.G.A.

The Civil Service C.C. opened its League season on Saturday with a match against the R.G.A. The Club was not at full strength, noteworthy absentees being D. M. Goodall and the Claud Severn.

The R.G.A., batting first, obtained 120 runs. To this total Gnr. Mann was the chief contributor. His 43 runs were made by careful cricket, with some pretty shots to leg, but he had at least two "lives" afforded him in the latter part of his innings. Baines, who put together 35 runs fairly quickly and was undefeated when the innings closed, brought off some big hits with no pretensions to style. R. E. O. Bird did the best of the three Civil Service bowlers, his five wickets costing only 9 runs each.

The Civil Service were left with an hour and a quarter in which to make the runs. The side was given an encouraging start by Bradbury and Wood. Unfortunately for his side, Wood, who had made an unbeaten 105 in the previous match, played on to his wickets when he had obtained 16 runs in a manner which gave rise to hopes of a big score. Bradbury was in for about 25 minutes scoring 24 runs. He played good cricket. Towards the end of the innings the Civil Service forced the pace in an endeavour to gain a decision one way or the other, and thereby lost three wickets cheaply. When time intervened, they had scored 90 runs for the loss of 8 wickets, the match thus ending in a draw.

CRAIGENGOWER DEFEAT KOWLOON.

Few except its most optimistic supporters expected the Craigenower Club to gain a decision over the Kowloon C.C., when these two teams met in the League on Saturday.

Kowloon played without L. J. Blackburn. Batting first, they compiled 95 runs. H. H. Taylor played correct cricket and was responsible for 23 of these. Robinson was in some time for his score of 16. The others found the bowling of Omar and Abbas a trifle too much for them. The former's fast deliveries had to be constantly watched. The fielding of the Craigenower team was very smart.

It was only the enterprising methods of the Craigenower "tail" that won the match. By steady batting he made 28 runs, but the other men on the side, usually good for 20 runs or thereabouts, were disappointing. Overly was mainly responsible for this state of affairs. He relieved Taylor of the ball when the score was in the thirties, and in his first over took 3 wickets for one run. In his second over he captured another wicket. With 7 wickets down going to win the match, but Manley came into the picture and scored 25 runs (not out), finding the boundary four times. The score fell, and it was left to Omar and Goldenberg to add the finishing touches. They obtained 13 runs each and won the match. Pestonji (6 for 38) bowled very consistently for Kowloon.

FRIENDLY MATCHES.

HONGKONG CLUB DEFEAT THE R.E.

The Hongkong C.C. defeated the R.E. in a friendly match on their own ground on Saturday. The Club had the services of Capt. Gray and Capt. Murray, and played two men who had not turned out for fortnight previously against the Craigenower.

The R.E. started streakily. Wahl, from whom so much was expected, was run out when he had only 8 runs to his credit. Waller and Lawrence raised the score to 40 for the second wicket, contributing equally to that total, and were then dismissed within a short time of each other. Neither of them was allowed to take liberties with the bowlers. After that disappearance, several wickets fell cheaply, and had it not been that Carragh added 25 runs in good style, the Engineers would have fared badly. The Hongkong C.C. tried five bowlers of whom Pearce and De Rome were the most successful. Pearce kept the runs down, and was helped by a keen field.

The Club started none too well, losing Murray and Maas when only seven runs had been scored. Gray and De Rome were next associated, however, and they changed the complexion of the game. Gray stepped out to all the loose balls, while De Rome was cautious at the start and contented himself with some long drives. He became too enterprising when he had passed 40, and was stumped by Wahl in attempting a big hit. The splendid innings of T. E. Pearce (56) was the chief feature in the game. The bowling did not greatly trouble him and most of his runs were scored by boundary shots. He gave a chance when in the fifties. The Club won the match by 28 runs. Scores and bowling analyses were as follows:—

C.R.C. DRAW WITH THE NAVY.

The Chinese Recreation Club fared better in a drawn match with the Navy on the latter's ground. The Navy played without Hack, Davis and Gurner.

Batting first, the sailors scored 134 runs. The Chinese bowling was good, so that Holborn, Breslin and Robinson, who were the chief contributors for their side, did not get their runs easily. The boundaries on the Navy ground being far and the outfield in none too good a condition, the batsmen had a lot of running to do for drives that would have been boundaries on any other ground. Commander Gibson was just getting set when he had his wicket spread-eagled by Un Hew Fan. Yew Man Tsun bowled with the best effect for his side.

Yew Man Tsun and Lee, who opened the Chinese innings, started very cautiously, and when the latter was succeeded by Cheng Chi, the play became almost monotonous. Yew Man Tsun registered 31 runs before he was caught and bowled by Kennett. Ng Sze Kwong, who was making a reappearance in the team after several weeks' absence due to illness, marked his advent with a stylish exhibition, while Un Hew Fan played enterprisingly. This couple were going strong when the innings terminated, the score standing at 104 for the loss of 3 wickets.

NAVAL XI BEATS UNIVERSITY.

The chief feature of a friendly match played on Saturday between a University team and a Naval XI was the splendid all-round work of McCarthy, of the Sailors, who scored 53—nearly half the total of his side—and took 8 wickets in the two University innings for 53 runs. McCarthy should be a candidate for the Navy XI in the league on the form he showed on this occasion.

The University was beaten by an innings and 9 runs. Ponsonby Fane and Marley, two of the mainstays of the usual University team, helped the other side; and Marley helped it to good effect, too, for in the two innings he captured 9 wickets for 37 runs.

LET US PAUSE AND CONSIDER!

A WORD TO THE MILITARY SERVICE TRIBUNAL.

The proceedings of the General Military Service Tribunal are becoming farcical. The introduction of conscription was a good thing. We toyed with the idea for a long time and resolved to take action about two years too late. That is the foundation of all the criticism against the manner in which an undoubtedly difficult task has been carried out. The individual members of the Tribunal are not to blame. On their behalf, an appeal might justly be made to the public on the lines of that belated from the platform by a concert organiser in the woolly West, when ominous signs of discontent were being manifested by the audience—"Don't shoot the pianist, gentlemen, he's doing his best." There have unquestionably been anomalies in the decisions. Some may have been due

WHAT WILL GERMANY DO?

It is impossible to read the momentous news from the seat of war without marvelling at the complete change which has come over the scene within the last six months. Towards the end of March, Germany, reinforced and reinvigorated by the successes of her intrigues on the Eastern front, concentrated her forces in the West and launched a tremendous attack upon the Allies. Such was the fury of the onslaught that, despite the preparations made to meet it, and the magnificent resistance offered by the Anglo-French armies, Germany recovered in a few weeks all, and more than all, the territory which had been wrested from her by three years' continuous fighting. At one time it looked as if this desperate effort would achieve its object, which was to drive a wedge between the Allies, forcing the French to abandon Paris and the British and the Belgians to relinquish the Channel Ports. The Allied line, however, though badly bent, remained unbroken, and levied such a terrible toll upon the enemy that they were unable to continue to pay the price. In the meantime, American troops had been arriving in increasing numbers, and, finally, in the middle of July, General Foch, who had been placed in supreme command of the Allied armies, struck back with signal success, taking the Germans completely unawares. Thence onward the tide flowed rapidly in favour of the Allies, who have advanced far beyond the points from which they were driven back in the Spring and have inflicted very severe losses in men and material upon the retreating Germans. Simultaneously, a succession of heavy blows was rained upon the Turks in Palestine and Mesopotamia. The dismay thus created amongst the

There were no cases of communicable diseases reported in the Colony on Friday.

At St. John's Cathedral, yesterday, thanks were returned for the Allies' successes and the Te Deum was sung.

A very successful whist-drive was held in Victoria Barracks, on Friday, by the members of the R.G.A. Sergeants' Mess. Twenty-six tables were occupied. The prize-winners were as follows:—Ladies—1st, Mrs. Hurle; 2nd, Mrs. Smith; 3rd, Mrs. Collins; hidden number, Mrs. Marks; booby, Mrs. Wright. Men—1st, Q.M.S. Sheriff, A.S.C.; 2nd, Mr. Davis, R.N.; 3rd, Mr. Lancaster, R.N.; hidden number, Mr. Finner, R.N.; booby, Mr. Booth, R.N. Mrs. May kindly undertook the arrangements for refreshments, and Master Gunner May carried out the duties of M.C.

The Police Station adjacent to Sheung Ping station, on the Canton-Kowloon Railway, Chinese Section, was attacked by a gang of robbers last night. The police overcame the miscreants after a struggle that lasted several hours. One of the robbers was caught and many are believed to have been wounded as the road along which they escaped was covered with blood. Several police were killed or wounded during the struggle, and the railway traffic in this locality is interrupted at present.

The tow-boat which runs between Canton and Hok-shan was pirated the other day, and the loss is estimated at more than $300,000.

The boat from Shek-Lung was attacked by pirates, but the result of the attack is unknown.

A boat from Canton to Shui-Hing was set fire to by pirates. She was fully loaded with cases of gasoline and the total loss is estimated at more than $400,000.

One of the robbers was caught and many are believed to have been wounded as the road along which they escaped was covered with blood. Several police were killed or wounded during the struggle, and the railway traffic in this locality is interrupted at present.

The tow-boat which runs between Canton and Hok-shan was pirated the other day, and the loss is estimated at more than $300,000.

The boat from Shek-Lung was attacked by pirates, but the result of the attack is unknown.

A boat from Canton to Shui-Hing was set fire to by pirates. She was fully loaded with cases of gasoline and the total loss is estimated at more than $400,000.

PUBLIC GARDEN.
The Civil Governor, Chak Wong, has subscribed $500,000 from his private purse towards the cost of providing a public garden in Canton.

LUNG'S TROOPS SURRENDERED.
Commander Shum Hung-ying reports that about three regiments of Lung's troops in Hoibow have surrendered.

"The Stunts," whose recent successful entertainment resulted in the "Our Day" fund benefiting by $1,050, will probably give another entertainment early next month in the City Hall. It has not yet been decided to which charity the funds will be devoted. The second part of the programme will be different, but by special request "My Lord in Livery" will be repeated.

THE CENTRAL POWERS AND PEACE.

THE TERMS OF THE TURKISH ARMISTICE.

LONDON, November 2nd. The Press Bureau publishes the text of the conditions of the Armistice with Turkey. The following is a summary of the provisions.

CLAUSES 1, 2, 3, 6, 7 and 8.—The opening of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus; the access to and command of the Black Sea; the surrender of the Turkish warships; the occupation of all strategic points of importance, in the event of a situation arising threatening the security of the Allies.

CLAUSE 4.—All Allied prisoners and interned Armenians to be collected in Constantinople and handed over, unconditionally, to the Allies.

CLAUSE 5.—The immediate demobilisation of the Army, except such troops as are required for the surveillance of the frontiers and for the maintenance of internal order; the number and disposal of such troops to be determined later by the Allies, after consultation with the Turkish Government.

CLAUSE 9.—Not yet received.

CLAUSE 10.—The Allied occupation of the Taurus Tunnel system.

CLAUSE 11.—The withdrawal of the Turkish troops from North Western Persia. The Turks having already evacuated a part of Trans-Caucasia, they are to evacuate the remainder if the Allies require it, after a study of the situation there.

CLAUSE 12.—All wireless and cable stations to be under Allied control, Turkish Government messages excepted.

CLAUSES 13 and 14.—Not yet received.

CLAUSE 15.—The Allied control of all railways; the Allied occupation of Batoum; that Turkey should not object to the occupation of Baku.

CLAUSE 16.—The surrender of the garrisons in the Hedjaz, at Assir and Yemen, and in Syria and Mesopotamia; the withdrawal of troops from Cilicia, except those maintaining order, as determined by Clause 5.

CLAUSE 17.—The surrender of all forts in the above-named districts.

CLAUSE 18.—Not yet received.

CLAUSE 19.—All Germans and Austrians—naval, military and civilian—to quit Turkey by the end of the month; those in remote districts to quit as soon as possible after that date.

CLAUSE 20.—The compliance with Allied orders as to the disposal of the arms and transport of all the troops demobilised under Clause 5.

CLAUSE 21.—An Allied representative to be attached to the Turkish Ministry of Supplies so as to safeguard Allied interests.

CLAUSE 22.—Turkish prisoners to be kept at the disposal of the Allies; the release of Turkish civilian prisoners over military age to be considered.

CLAUSE 23.—Turkey to cease all relations with the Central Powers.

CLAUSE 24.—In the case of disorder in the six Armenian vilayets the Allies to reserve the right to occupy any of them.

ENORMOUS IMPORTANCE OF THE ARMISTICE.

LONDON, November 1st. Reuter is informed that the terms of the Turkish Armistice constitute a complete and unconditional surrender, enabling the military to occupy any place the Allies choose. Territorial re-adjustments have been left for the Peace Conference, but any suggestion of Turkish sovereignty over the liberated populations would be viewed with very great disfavour. The Armistice is of enormous importance from the viewpoint of prosecuting the war against Germany, and reviving the Russian and Rumanian situations.

WAR SITUATION CHANGED BY COLLAPSE OF TURKEY.

PARIS, November 1st. A Havas message states:—Yesterday afternoon the President, in the Chamber of Deputies, having announced that the Minister of Marine was about to make a communication, Mr. Leygues entered the Chamber and stated that an Armistice with Turkey had been signed on Wednesday night and came into operation on Thursday, at noon.

The terms included the free passage of the Allied fleets through the Bosphorus to the Black Sea, the occupation of the forts of the Dardanelles and the immediate repatriation of all Allied prisoners of war.

When M. Leygues concluded the sentence referring to the passage through the Dardanelles there was an outburst of applause, every Member of the Chamber standing up. The cheering lasted for several minutes.

The general opinion is that Turkey's capitulation has sounded the death-knell of the German Empire.

Paris opinion is that the surrender of Turkey will have vast consequences. The Allied Fleet can pass the Dardanelles, proceeding to Constantinople. When the Allies reach the Black Sea it would be possible to aid the Russian forces resisting the Bolsheviks.

Turkey's collapse revolutionises the entire position in Russia and the Near East.

ANARCHY IN TURKEY.

THE HAGUE, November 2nd. It is reported that anarchy prevails in Constantinople and the whole of Turkey. Hundreds of thousands of deserters live on robbery.

CHANGED FEELINGS IN TURKEY.

AMSTERDAM, November 2nd. A telegram from Constantinople, via Berlin, discloses the changed feelings of the Turkish Press as regards Germany's "invincibility."

The papers declare that the German war policy has become bankrupt, while Great Britain and America are the leading Powers.

It is therefore Turkey's task to open favourable relations with both.

The newspaper Sabah states that the Turks have always been in favour of Great Britain and France. The Turkish-German Alliance was purely Government-made.

AUSTRO-ITALIAN HOSTILITIES TO CEASE.

LONDON, November 1st. Reuter learns that it is practically certain that Austro-Italian hostilities will cease almost immediately, if they have not already ceased.

FORMAL DEMAND OF AN ARMISTICE.

LYONS, November 1st. A message from Rome states that the Austrian Commander-in-Chief in Italy has formally demanded the conclusion of an Armistice.

Events are moving with extreme speed in Austria-Hungary.—French Wire.

AUSTRIAN ARMISTICE TERMS DECIDED UPON.

ROME, November 2nd. The Inter-Allied Conference at Versailles has drawn up the Austrian Armistice conditions, which General Diaz has communicated to the Austrian envoys.

The conditions render the enemy's resumption of war impossible, and also prevent him from profiting by the Armistice by extricating himself from his present bad military position.

DISMEMBERMENT OF AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

AMSTERDAM, November 2nd. The Volksrecht states that the Constituent Assembly of Austrian Rumanians, formed on October 28th, demanded the union of Bukovina and Transylvania and the Rumanian territories in Hungary as an Independent State.

Polish Deputies in the Reichsrath announced the union of Austro-Hungarian and Polish territories with the Polish State. A liquidation committee has been established at Lemberg to arrange for this.

A telegram from Agram states that the Croatian Diet has declared the absolute independence of Croatia, Slavonia, and Dalmatia.

POLITICAL CHANGES IN AUSTRIA.

AMSTERDAM, November 2nd. A message from Vienna states that the Emperor, Count Lammasch, representing the President of the State Council that he is empowered to hand-over the Government within the German-Austrian Sphere.

THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN NAVY.

LONDON, November 1st. A German official statement says that an Imperial Proclamation has been issued in Vienna which announces that the Austro-Hungarian Navy has been handed over to the South Slav National Council at Agram.

COUNT KAROLYI FORMS NEW HUNGARIAN MINISTRY.

BUDAPEST, November 1st. Count Karolyi has formed the new Hungarian Ministry.

KING BORIS OF BULGARIA ABDICATES.

COPENHAGEN, November 2nd. A telegram from Berlin states that King Boris of Bulgaria has abdicated. A Provisional Government has been established at Tirnovo under M. Stambulinsky.

A SENSATIONAL WEEK'S EVENTS.

LONDON, November 2nd. The abdication of King Boris of Bulgaria is the latest sensation of a week which has witnessed the collapse of two Empires, and the sudden development of a military disaster of the first magnitude on the plains of Venetia.

The establishment of a Provisional Government in Bulgaria may be indicative of the tendency of events in Austria-Hungary, where the conditions are at present chaotic, and from where the news is scrappy and uncertain.

There are apparently two Premiers in Hungary; Count Hadik, the nominee of Archduke Joseph, who is charged by the latter to restore order, and Count Karolyi, whose former championship of the Magyar domination makes his National Ministry suspect in the eyes of the Allies.

Both may still be submerged in the wave of Soviet anarchy, as the establishment of Councils of Soldiers and Officers is reported both from Vienna and Budapest.

Count Karolyi has issued a list of Ministers, who are chiefly notable for the fact that they are all Magyars.

Another new Cabinet is the German-Austrian Cabinet formed in Vienna, the most notable names in which are M. Hordor who has the Foreign portfolio, and the assassin of Premier Stuerger in 1916.

Meanwhile the whereabouts of Emperor Karl is uncertain. The latest report is that he is still in Vienna.

These developments impose new responsibilities on the Entente, involving the re-organisation of their nationals, the limitation of civil war, and the preservation of a Government capable of discharging the obligations incurred by the Monarchy.

It is impossible yet to predict how swift the march of events will affect Germany. The hurried departure of the Kaiser, the Chancellor and Dr. Delbrueck, the Kaiser's secretary, for Headquarters, has revived the rumours in Berlin of impending abdication, though it is pointed out in London that the stiffened German resistance against the British coincided with the Kaiser's arrival at the front.

It is also stated that the first task of General Ludendorff's successor, General Groener, is to collect reinforcements from the East for the West.

THE KAISER MUST ABDICATE.

COPENHAGEN, November 2nd. It is officially announced that Herr Scheidemann, as Secretary of State, has sent the Chancellor a memorandum emphasising the necessity for the abdication of the Emperor.

KAISER'S "FLIGHT" TO HEAD-QUARTERS.

LONDON, November 2nd. Swiss reports depict the Kaiser's departure for Headquarters as a flight.

It is stated that the Government is urging his abdication.

General Ludendorff, who is apparently still at Headquarters, is said to be chief of a Military Cabal against the Government, but it is believed that the latter could thwart any such plot.

FINANCIAL PANIC IN GERMANY.

LONDON, November 1st. The President of the Imperial German State Bank, addressing the Bank Directors, indicated that the recent political and military events had resulted in a financial panic. He said that there had been a complete senseless withdrawal of balances from the credit institutions, and the hoarding of bank notes by members of every class of the population, which had severely damaged the whole German economic existence at a time of very great necessity.

SUPPORT FOR THE HOHENZOLLERNS.

LONDON, November 2nd. A telegram from Berlin states that the Prussian Upper House has passed an unanimous vote of fidelity to the hereditary ruling House.

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL AT WORK.

AMSTERDAM, November 2nd. A telegram from Budapest states that the Military and Navy Commands and the members of the Civil Service have taken their oaths of allegiance to the National Council.

The Council is urging the people to resume work and the soldiers to return to barracks. Popular rejoicings continue.

GERMAN SOLDIERS' CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

AMSTERDAM, November 2nd. The granting of military leave is being resumed where militarily advisable, except among the recent turbulent corps from Vienna.

Plans have been drawn up for the formation of a representative Soldiers' Central Committee to replace the present provisional one.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT IN PRAGUE.

AMSTERDAM, November 1st. The change of regime in Prague was characterised by orderliness and popular rejoicings. Administrative measures are proceeding smoothly.

THE BOLSHIEVIK INFECTION IN EUROPE.

STOCKHOLM, November 2nd. The Swedish Mission, which has returned from the Ukraine, emphasises that the Bolsheviki peril menaces the Ukraine, where the presence of German troops is tolerated because they afford a safeguard against the Bolsheviki.

The newspaper, Stenokhod declares that the Russian Bolsheviki are planning to sweep over Europe.

The Bolsheviki Government is spending large sums in neighbouring countries "to spread the infection."

INTERESTING DEVELOPMENTS IN RUMANIA.

LONDON, November 2nd. Views from Jassy shows that there is great excitement in Rumania over recent events. The King held numerous conferences with the leaders of the Government, also the ex-premier M. Bratiano. There are indications of interesting developments.

THE COMPLETE COLLAPSE OF AUTOCRACY.

LONDON, November 1st. Mr. H. H. Asquith, speaking at Glasgow, said that the most striking change occurring in Europe was the complete and irreversible collapse of autocracy. Three Emperors had in 1914 ruled the greater part of Europe and a large part of Asia.

The Russian Emperor had been deposed and murdered.

The Austrian Emperor was a waif and stray, while the third was hovering on the verge of abdication.

Whatever be the terms of peace, these Thrones cannot be allowed to rebuild. We entered the war as the champions of the smaller nations, and in spite of tribulations, every one of these would ultimately find its trust in the Allies more than justified.

History would record how largely this achievement was due to the British Navy, the Merchant Service, the Army and the Air; also British finance.

Our general aims could be still summed up in two words—reparation and security.

THE INFLUENZA SCOURGE.

LONDON, November 2nd. The influenza epidemic continues to rage in many parts of the world. It has now reached a more dangerous stage in the United Kingdom, owing to the advent of septic pneumonia. Numerous deaths are reported from various parts of the country.

The Ministry of National Service has released a very large number of doctors to attend to civilian cases, and has cancelled all outstanding notices calling up men for medical examination.

CAPE TOWN, October 24th. (Delayed.)

Influenza continues virulent in the country districts, but the towns are rapidly resuming their normal aspect.

The death toll in Kimberley during the epidemic was 10 per cent of the population. It is probable that a similar death toll will be recorded in Cape Town.

THE OVERSEAS CLUB.

LONDON, November 1st. The Overseas Club is appealing to its world-wide members to contribute to its War Memorial Fund. It is proposed to erect a building in London as its club and to serve other useful purposes.

THE SILVER MARKET.

LONDON, November 1st. The silver market is quiet.

BRITISH FRONT.

BRITISH CAPTURES ON THE WEST.

LONDON, November 2nd. Sir Douglas Haig states:—The English and Canadians attacked at dawn on a six mile front south of Valenciennes.

After sharp fighting, inflicting exceptionally heavy casualties, forced a passage across the Rhonelle and captured the villages of Maresches and Aulnoy, and outposts of Valenciennes.

The enemy determinedly counter-attacked the high ground west of the Presneau-Valenciennes Road.

We maintained our positions on the ridge.

Counter-attacks were developing this evening north-east and north of Aulnoy. We took between 2,000 and 3,000 prisoners.

The British in October took 49,000 prisoners in France including 1,500 officers. The British also captured, in the same period, 925 guns, 7,000 machine guns and 670 trench mortars.

In the area of the enemy's retreat enormous stocks of ammunition, material and stores have fallen into our hands, including several locomotives, quantities of rolling-stock, many wagons, a few tanks, hundreds of tons of wire, several thousand tons of road metal, some hundreds of miles of telephone cable, a great number of engineers and other troops.

The enemy abandoned in front of one Army alone some 2,000,000 feet of timber. The British, during a series of successful battles in the last three months, have taken 172,659 prisoners, 2,375 guns, 17,000 machine guns, and 2,750 trench mortars.

FIGHTING ROUND VALENCIENNES.

LONDON, November 2nd. Reuter's Correspondent at British Headquarters, telegraphing yesterday, stated:—

The attack of the First and Third British Armies, south of Valenciennes, already threatens the enemy communications, by the capture of the high ground south-east of the town.

The enemy is resisting strongly, clearly intending to cling to this strategic pivot as long as possible.

Our batteries could easily render Valenciennes untenable, but only by ruining it, and our desire to avoid damaging the town is largely responsible for the prolongation of the fighting.

SOUTHERN EDGE OF VALENCIENNES REACHED.

LONDON, November 1st. In a successful attack in Flanders we achieved an advance to a depth of six miles on a front of ten miles.

We reached the Scheldt from Berchem to Gavere, ten miles south of Ghent.

We advanced two miles on a front of four south of Valenciennes, capturing Aulnoy and Presneau, and reaching the southern edge of Valenciennes, which is flooded, resembling Venice.

The Franco-Americans are making a combined advance towards the Meuse and have progressed four miles.

They are nearing Buzancy.

VALENCIENNES WHOLLY IN BRITISH POSSESSION.

LONDON, November 2nd. Sir Douglas Haig states:—

Fighting yesterday to the south of Valenciennes was very severe and continued until morning.

On a battle-front of six miles large numbers of the enemy were killed. Many counter-attacks were repulsed and 4,000 prisoners captured.

The Seventeenth Corps and Twenty-Second Corps, under Generals Ferguson and Godley respectively, gained high ground to the south-east of Valenciennes, and in the morning pressed forward and captured the present village.

To the north, the Canadian Corps, under General Currie, after hard fighting on the outskirts of Valenciennes, have passed through the town, which is wholly in our possession.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS IN FLANDERS.

LONDON, November 2nd. A British-Belgian official statement says:—

The operations of the Flanders Armies continued yesterday in the most successful manner.

The British threw the enemy line back on the Scheldt up to Melden, capturing the strong villages of Ansegem, Tieghem, Caster, and Elegebe.

The Franco-Americans, in the centre, fiercely carried certain defended heights between the Lys and the Scheldt and advanced to the Scheldt, between Melden and Eecke, on a front of 15 kilometres to a depth of 8 to 15 kilometres, capturing, in two days' fighting, nineteen villages, notably Deynze, Nazareth, and Audenarde and taking, on October 31st, 1,000 prisoners.

Two batteries of Belgians in the north carried out minor operations near the "Derivation" Canal, assisted by French tanks.

THROUGH GERMAN EYES.

LONDON, November 1st. A German official message states:—

The enemy penetrated our lines to the south of Deynze.

Our troops, to the north of Courtrai, Oudenarde railway, were withdrawn to keep in touch with their neighbours on the heights of both sides of the Nokere.

FRENCH FRONT.

VAIN ATTEMPT TO REGAIN ST. FERGUEUX.

LYONS, November 1st. There was extremely violent fighting on the front of the Fifth Army.

The Germans counter-attacked many times, in vain, to regain the Plateau of St. Fergueux.

In two days the French captured 1,500 prisoners here.—French Wire.

ATTACK ON THE AISNE FRONT.

LONDON, November 2nd. A French communiqué states:—We resumed the attack today on the Aisne front.

BIG ATTACK ON THE AISNE FRONT.

A French communiqué states:—There was fighting all day long between St. Quentin-Petit and Herpy. The enemy was compelled to yield ground in the region of Banogne and Becourange, also west of Herpy.

The Fourth French Army and the Americans attacked this morning on the Aisne front, north and south of Vouziers. On a front of 20 kilometres from east of Attigny to north of Olizy we penetrated enemy positions which were stubbornly defended.

We carried Billy-aux-Bois, east of Attigny.

Further south, our troops, crossing the Aisne, carried Somay and Vaucou and vigorously drove back the enemy toward the east over three kilometres, penetrating Vaucou Wood deeply.

ALLIES' ADVANCE IN FLANDERS RECOMMENDED.

LYONS, November 1st. In Flanders, the Allies again took the offensive on Thursday and reached their objectives in the direction of Gyselsbrecht, Hutteghem, and Bregerch.

The British alone took 1,000 prisoners.—French Wire.

ENORMOUS IMPORTANCE OF PRESENT BATTLE.

LONDON, November 2nd. Reuter's correspondent at French Headquarters, telegraphing yesterday evening, stated:—

The future operations towards Metziers and the German main communications with Germany largely depend on the success of the battle launched today on both sides of the Argonne.

General Gouraud's Army is striking towards the north-east from the Aisne across a gonne, and is in touch at Grandpre with a larger American attack directed towards the north of East Argonne.

They are both engaged in turning the labyrinth of wooded hills and ravines styled Bag Wood or Boule Forest. When they join hands north of this great forest, the enemy will have lost the last natural fortress remaining to him before the Ardennes.

The success of both Armies to-day, signified remarkably the rapid progress of the joint turning movement.

Equally violent fighting occurred east of Vouziers. We gained a footing on the Aisne Plateau to the north-east of Theron and reached the western outskirts of Vandy Wood and the brook east of Chistrey.

On the right, we advanced beyond Falaix and carried the crests south-west of Primat, taking several hundred prisoners and a number of guns, including four batteries.

AMERICAN ATTACK WEST OF THE MEUSE.

LONDON, November 2nd. An American official statement says:—The First Army continued its attack west of the Meuse this morning, and is progressing favourably.

AMERICAN SUCCESS WEST OF THE MEUSE.

An American official message states:—We continued to attack on the west bank of the Meuse in conjunction with the French.

Our infantry, artillery, aeroplanes and tanks overcame and disorganised the enemy's resistance and broke up his counter-attacks.

We are already beyond St. Georges, Landres-et-St. Georges, Imecourt, Landreville, Chennery, Bayonville, Remonville, Adevanville, and Clercy-le-Grand. Over 3,500 prisoners have been counted.

ALLIED ADVANCE UNCHECKED.

FIFTY THOUSAND PRISONERS CAPTURED.

LYONS, November 1st.

The Austrians are in full retreat. The Piave has been passed everywhere by the Italian army.

The enemy have already lost over 50,000 prisoners and 300 guns. This explains the insistence of Austria in claiming an immediate Armistice.—French Wireless.

THE LIVENZA CROSSED.

LONDON, November 2nd.

A British-Italian official statement says:—

The Tenth Army crossed the Livenza between Motta and Sacle and is now bridging the river.

The Forty-Eighth Division advanced its line two kilometres north of Monte Catz, in spite of machine-gun resistance.

TENTH ARMY HOLDS THE LIVENZA.

LONDON, November 1st.

A British-Italian official message states:—

The Eleventh Italian Corps, advancing vigorously, reached Mottodi-Livenza, from where the Tenth Army holds the river, up to a point north of Sacle.

THE TIDE OF THE BATTLE.

LONDON, November 1st.

An Italian official message states:—

The battle is continuing and expanding. The enemy maintains intact his resistance from St. Elvio to Astico, and the line vacillates in the Asiago Plateau.

He is in full retreat on the remainder of the front.

Our troops are in enthusiastic pursuit and are intensely shelling the enemy.

Our Cavalry Divisions re-established the crossings of the Livenza and are marching towards Tagliamento.

The Sixth Army is attacking its adversary on the whole front at the end of the Brenta Valley.

We occupied Feltre. Our light columns are brilliantly encircling Fadalto.

Our marines reached Caorle. Prisoners are continually increasing. Over 700 guns have been taken. The value of the booty is estimated at millions.

ALLIES ENTER BELLUNO.

LONDON, November 2nd.

An Italian official statement says:—

On the Asiago Plateau, the Sixth Army, with two Allied Divisions, took possession yesterday of the following formidable positions:—Monte Mosciagh, Monte Longa, Monte Baldola, Meletta-di-Gallio, the Sassorosso, Sossorosso, Tappiz, and Wambura. Over 3,000 prisoners were captured and 233 guns taken.

The enemy's resistance in the defile of Fadalto was overcome. We entered Belluno.

The Third Cavalry reached the plains north of Pordenone.

Between Sacle and Stitino the infantry of the Tenth and Third Armies passed the Livenza.

EIGHTY THOUSAND PRISONERS.

LONDON, November 2nd.

An Italian official statement says:—

East of the Brenta the pursuit is continuing. On the Asiago Plateau we crossed the Asa between Rotzo and Roana, captured Mount Cimone and Mount Lisher, and are advancing in the Noe Valley.

The Fourth Army occupied the heights north of the Fonzas hollow, and advanced in the Sugana Valley, pressing on the old frontier yesterday evening.

The Alpine crossed the Piave and spread out in the area between Feltre and San Giustina.

The Eighth Army is advancing towards Longarone. Our cavalry occupied Pordenone and passed Collina and Medana.

The Third and Tenth Armies continue their advance towards the east. So far 1,600 guns and 80,000 prisoners have been counted.

We liberated from captivity several thousand Italian soldiers.

CANTON BRITISH RED CROSS.

"OUR DAY."

A successful Garden Fête was held on the Sports ground, Shamoon, on the afternoon and evening of "Our Day."

October 24th, as the result of which over £3,000 was raised for the funds of the British Red Cross. At a similar fête, held in 1913, £300 was raised; in 1914, the proceeds were increased to £750; and again last year to £1,435. That the sum should have more than doubled itself this year is a tribute to the organizing skill and unremitting energy of the President of the "Our Day" Committee, Mr. O. W. Darch, and to the hard work of all concerned.

The ladies in charge of the stalls gave much time and thought to making these attractive, and the large takings prove how successful their efforts were. The side-shows were run with enthusiasm and originality, and provided varied entertainment for large crowds of Chinese who, by judicious advertising, had been drawn to the fête. The proceedings were enhanced by a pipet, who came from Hongkong for the occasion, and by the band of the French Mission School.

Grateful thanks are due to those who generously put their time and their talents at the disposal of the Committee, and to all who opened wide their purses and gave freely to the cause of the Red Cross.

THE WAR.

The following cables were received on Saturday night and issued on early morning Extra, yesterday.

General.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

THE END APPROACHING, SCENES IN VIENNA AND BUDAPEST.

COPENHAGEN, October 31st.

The Berliner Tageblatt announces great demonstrations in Budapest and Vienna.

The crowds in Vienna shouted "Down with Hapsburg." The fall of the Lamsch Cabinet is expected. The army is in full dissolution. A Provisional Council of Soldiers and Officers has been established.

A Budapest revolutionary troops, demanding a Republic, govern the whole town.

INSURGENT TROOPS SUPPLIED WITH MACHINE-GUNS.

BERLIN, November 1st.

A semi-official message from Berlin states that the troubles in Vienna and Budapest broke out simultaneously. The insurgent troops in Budapest are well supplied with machine-guns and munitions. They hold all the stations and are acting under the orders of the Hungarian National Assembly.

This outbreak was apparently provoked by the attempt of Archduke Eugene to establish a military dictatorship. The arrest of two young officers precipitated the revolt. One was released by order of the Crown. The other was taken to the Headquarters of the Military Governor which were immediately besieged.

The sentries, instead of resisting, took their places at the head of the demonstrators who then stormed the military prison and released the prisoners.

Events in Vienna are more peaceable. A procession of thousands of soldiers and officers, acclaiming a Republic, paraded in front of Parliament and surrounded the War Office. There were no disorders.

EMPEROR GOES WITH BAG AND BAGGAGE.

LONDON, November 1st.

A message from Copenhagen states that Vienna is in turmoil. The mob is indulging in excesses. The city is foodless. The National Council has assumed control but has agreed to the establishment of a Soldiers' and Workmen's Council. Revolutionary marines in Pola master the warships which were placed at the disposal of Hungary and the South-Slavonians.

The Emperor Karl, on leaving Vienna, took eighteen railway wagons of furniture and food and also a quantity of money and the Crown jewels.

PEACE NEXT WEEK PREDICTED.

LONDON, November 1st.

The surrender of Turkey and the imminent disappearance of Austria-Hungary have completed the isolation of Germany, releasing formidable Allied forces for new fields of action on the frontiers of Saxony, Bavaria and elsewhere, facilitating the Allied efforts for the reconstruction of Russia and the restoration of Poland and, incidentally, giving access to the granaries of Southern Russia. These developments will take time but their menace may persuade Germany to forestall, by capitulation, the inevitable end.

Accounts which have reached London of Germany's internal difficulties suggest that the Allied terms may be speedily accepted.

The Daily News even predicts the cessation of hostilities by the end of next week though, naturally, the settlement of the peace conditions will take much longer. The papers generally, however, contemplate the possibility of a considerable naval battle in the Black Sea where the Germanised Russian Fleet, including two dreadnoughts, may offer a fight or shelter behind the mine and submarine defences. The papers, commenting upon Turkey's surrender, emphasise that it is the single-handed work of Great Britain whose sea power made possible the splendid triumphs of the British and Indian armies in the east.

COUNT TISZA ASSASSINATED.

COPENHAGEN, November 1st.

Count Tisza, the ex-Premier of Hungary, has been assassinated in Budapest by a soldier.

Count Tisza had long been known as the most resolute conservative in Hungary, and was vehemently opposed to the extension of the franchise and similar reforms. He strongly supported the alliance with Germany.

GERMANY'S BACK-DOOR.

LONDON, November 1st.

Mr. G. N. Barnes, addressing a meeting in London, said the armistice with Turkey might have been signed previously. We had held the Turks on a string for the past fortnight, but we were in no hurry to finish the Turks until we had captured Aleppo, which would be the capital in future of a free Arab State.

We had been collecting warships at the mouth of the Dardanelles for some time. If they had not yet entered they would do so as soon as there was nothing to prevent the fleet ascending the Danube to the back-door of Germany.

PANIC IN THE RHINE PROVINCES.

AMSTERDAM, November 1st.

The Tagliche Rundschau states that a panic has broken out among the population of the Rhine Provinces as well-informed people declare that the Government is prepared, if necessary, to allow enemy troops to occupy Coblenz and Cologne.

The statement is confirmed by the Cologne Gazette.

ISOLATION OF GERMANY.

AMSTERDAM, November 1st.

Railway traffic from Berlin and Saxony to Austria has been stopped.

The Czechs held up the oil trains bound for Germany, seized the cargo and dismantled the escort. Food trains to Vienna and Germany have also been held up.

GERMAN FOREIGN OFFICE VIEWS.

The German Foreign Office states that peace negotiations must be concluded in closest contact with economic circles. The Foreign Office regards the regaining of the German Colonies as one of the main tasks and announces that everything should be done to create a free path, as soon as possible for mercantile activities abroad.

A message from Vienna is to the effect that the State Council has issued a proclamation announcing the assumption of the government of German-Austria. It urges the maintenance of peace and promises to protect national minorities. It expects reciprocal protection in the Slav territories and declares peace will be concluded in accord with the German Empire.

HUNGARIAN NATIONAL COUNCIL.

COPENHAGEN, November 1st.

Count Karolyi, above the signature of "President of the Hungarian National Council," has sent a message to the Berliner Tageblatt, saying "Revolution has broken out in Budapest and the National Council has taken over the Government. The military and police completely acknowledge the Council. The inhabitants are rejoicing."

THE REIGN OF TERROR IN RUSSIA.

AMSTERDAM, November 1st.

A message from Petrograd states that Madame Brechneva, "the grand-mother of the revolution," has been shot for her resistance to the reign of terror.

ANOTHER NOTE TO PRESIDENT WILSON.

PARIS, October 31st.

A message from Bern states that the German-Austrian National Council is transmitting a note to President Wilson, notifying him of the creation of a German-Austrian State and claiming all Austrian territory in which Germans predominate, including Moravia and Silesia. The note asks for admittance to the peace negotiations, unreservedly admitting President Wilson's principles and recognising the independence of the Jugo-Slavs and the Czech-Slovaks.

It appeals for the right of self-determination and an immediate armistice.

FINNISH ARMY COMMANDER TO VISIT ENGLAND.

STOCKHOLM, November 1st.

General Mannerheim, ex-Commander of the Finnish Army, is going to England.

AMALGAMATIONS WITH SERBIA.

PARIS, November 1st.

A message from Zurich states that the Bosnian National Council, at its meeting at Sarajevo on October 31st, proclaimed the amalgamation of Bosnia and Herzegovina with the Kingdom of Serbia.

The crowds freed those who had been imprisoned in connection with the murder of Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

KING THANKS GENERAL ALLENBY.

LONDON, November 1st.

The Press Bureau announces that the King, telegraphing to General Allenby the Grand Cross of the Bath, expresses admiration for the spirit and endurance of the troops who secured the complete surrender of the Turks. The message concludes "This is a glorious and memorable achievement and on behalf of your grateful fellow-countrymen I thank you and all ranks."

THE ALLIED COUNCIL.

PARIS, November 1st.

The Allied Council at Versailles is still sitting. Its labours are well advanced. Marshal Foch yesterday reported on the military situation.

TO RESTORE DEVASTATED FRANCE.

PARIS, October 31st.

President Poincare received, at the Elysee, representatives of the fund raised in England by the Allies' Relief Committee for supplying seeds, implements and live stock to the devastated districts of France.

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY OF YSER BATTLE.

PARIS, October 31st.

A Havas message says:—The fourth anniversary of the battle of Yser was celebrated by a great demonstration in a theatre at Havre. M. Lebrun, the Minister of the Liberated Regions, presided, paying a tribute to the loyalty of Belgium. M. Coenen, the Belgian Premier, expressed thanks for French hospitality, saying Belgium will not forget.

AUSTRIAN ARMY PEACE WITH ITALY.

LONDON, November 1st.

According to an Austrian official wireless message the High Command states that the army early on October 29th, by means of a parlementaire, communicated with the Italian Army Command.

Every effort is being made for the avoidance of further useless bloodshed, the cessation of hostilities and the conclusion of the armistice.

The Italian High Command at first assumed an attitude of unmistakable refusal, and it was only on the evening of October 30th that the deputation was permitted to cross the fighting line for preliminary pourparlers.

THE SURRENDER OF TURKEY.

LONDON, October 31st.

It is understood that Turkey has offered to lay down arms in all theatres and to release all British prisoners.

News is momentarily expected of the opening of the Dardanelles and the occupation of Constantinople by British naval forces.

THE BREAK-UP OF AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

LONDON, October 31st.

The break-up of what was Austria-Hungary is so rapid that the question is being asked with whom will the Allies negotiate.

Following the announcement that the Czech Council controls Prague absolutely, comes news that the Generals commanding at Agram have placed all their troops at the disposal of the Croatian Council.

German newspapers, accept the situation philosophically. Their comment may be summed up in the remark:—"Austria-Hungary is now a phantom. We stand alone and must make the best of it."

GERMAN BOHEMIA INDEPENDENT.

AMSTERDAM, October 31st.

A message from Vienna says German Bohemia has declared its independence, with the seat of government at Reichenberg. It has elected the German Radical, Herr Pascher, as President.

FIUME HANDED OVER TO THE CROATS.

AMSTERDAM, October 31st.

A message from Budapest says the Hungarian Governor of Fiume, upon instructions, has handed over the town to the Croats.

THE ALLIES AND AUSTRIA.

PARIS, October 31st.

A Havas message says:—The French Press maintains that, as required from Bulgaria, Austria must give the Allied troops free passage through her territory and the use of the railways. She cannot be permitted to act as a screen protecting Germany against attack from the south. Count Andrássy is mistrusted. He cannot impede the progress of subject races towards liberty.

Count Andrássy's manoeuvre is for using the league of Nations for escaping complete surrender.

SOCIALIST DEMONSTRATIONS IN BERLIN.

LONDON, October 31st.

Reuter's Correspondent at Amsterdam says it transpires that Independent Socialist members of the Reichstag addressed five demonstrations in Berlin on Sunday, which were suppressed.

Herr Liebknecht demanded the establishment of a Government which would unite the workmen of all countries within International Socialism.

Herr Ledebour warned his hearers to prepare for anything, asking them to be ready for action.

Marshal Hindenburg denies the reports that he will resist for a short time. He says this is untrue, and adds "The German Army and Fleet will not capitulate."

DUTCH SOLDIERS BECOMING RESTLESS.

AMSTERDAM, November 1st.

There have been mutinous outbreaks among the Dutch troops owing to the long mobilisation and the recent suspension of leave, curtailment of food and other grievances. The disturbances were quelled and the soldiers at The Hague calmed by the issue of extra rations.

THE INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC.

RAGING IN NORWAY.

LONDON, November 1st.

The influenza epidemic is declining in France and Spain, and in some parts of England but is raging fiercely in Norway. There are several hundred fresh cases daily in Christiania where, to the end of September, there had been 100,000 cases and 2,000 deaths.

THE ELECTIONS IN U.S.A.

APPEAL BY MESSRS. ROOSEVELT AND TAFT.

NEW YORK, November 1st.

Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft have issued a joint appeal for the election of a Republican majority in which they criticise President Wilson's fourteen points as general and vague. They express doubt as to whether the points include all that the Allies may justly demand or whether they do not concede something which the Allies may justly withhold.

Interest in the elections in the United States on November 5th of the whole of the House of Representatives, one-third of the Senate, and the Governors and Legislatures of many States, is intensified by the vigorous reply of the Republican leaders on the 28th inst. to President Wilson's appeal for the election of a Democratic Congress.

The Republicans, in their reply, declare that they stand for peace by victory, not by negotiation. They accuse President Wilson of aiming at autocracy and of desiring full power, not only to settle the war, but to reconstruct American industry on the basis of universal Free Trade, thus giving Germany advantages she would never be able to obtain militarily.

MARITIME WAR RISKS.

LONDON, October 31st.

The Press Bureau says the Board of Trade announces that war risks on cargo will be decreased fifty per cent. in cases where vessels sail during an armistice between belligerents.

BRITISH DESTROYER SUNK.

LONDON, October 31st.

The Admiralty announces that a British destroyer sank without casualties, on Tuesday, after collision with a merchantman.

Franco-Belgian front.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BRITISH FRONT.

LONDON, October 31st.

Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig reports:—The Second Army attacked this morning to the south-west of Audenarde and captured all their objectives and about 1,000 prisoners.

Our air squadrons were intensely active on the whole front on October 30th. They took over 3,000 photographs and nearly 20 tons of bombs were dropped. The squadrons successfully attacked an aerodrome, demolishing two hangars containing machines. From a low altitude they destroyed two aeroplanes on the ground and caused many casualties among the personnel of the aerodrome by machine-gun fire, stampeding a horse transport in the vicinity. The continuous air fighting resulted greatly in our favour and was the outstanding feature of the day.

SEVENTY-NINE ENEMY MACHINES ACCOUNTED FOR.

LONDON, October 31st.

We destroyed 64 aeroplanes and drove down 15 unaccountable. The night-fliers continued operations. They dropped 61 tons of bombs on important railway junctions and shot down a German night-flier in flames. The total accounted for represents a record day's fighting. Eighteen British machines are missing.

GOOD PROGRESS REPORTED.

LONDON, November 1st.

Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig reports:—We took a number of prisoners in successful minor enterprises in the neighbourhood of Le Quesnoy. The operation undertaken this morning to the south of Valenciennes is reported to be making good progress.

SUCCESSFUL LOCAL OPERATIONS.

LONDON, October 31st.

A Belgian communiqué states that as a result of local operations we are almost everywhere established on the western bank of the Lys. Daalmen has been captured.

A GERMAN REPORT.

LONDON, November 1st.

A German official message says:—Hostile attacks from the Dutch frontier as far as the Scheldt broke down before the Lys front.

FRENCH FRONT.

LONDON, November 1st.

A French communiqué states that there was violent artillery during the night in the region of Guise, west of St. Quentin.

A further communiqué states that the heavy fighting on the western slopes of the St. Feux plateau resulted advantageously. Over 120 prisoners were captured.

GOOD REPORT FROM AMERICAN ARMY.

LONDON, November 1st.

An American communiqué states:—North of Verdun we ejected the enemy from the village of Brioules on the west of the Meuse. There has been most heavy artillery on the whole front.

Seven enemy aeroplanes were shot down.

HARD FIGHTING ROUND GUISE.

PARIS, October 31st.

A Havas message says:—On the Western Front there is hard fighting. French troops are round Guise. Between the Serre and the Aisne some progress has been made, but the Germans maintain a stubborn resistance, there being frequent counter-attacks.

On Tuesday the French brought down 90 enemy machines.

AMERICAN PROGRESS.

LONDON, October 31st.

An American official message says:—We advanced our lines northward of Grandpre and occupied Belle Joyeuse farm.

Aerial Activities.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BOMBING GERMAN FACTORIES.

GOOD WORK BEHIND THE LINES.

LONDON, November 1st.

The Press Bureau announces that an independent force on the night of Oct. 29th bombed chemical factories and works with good effect. On the night of Oct. 30th it attacked two aerodromes, obtaining four direct hits on the hangars and starting a fire. It also attacked the railways at Baden, the chemical factories at Karlsruhe, and the blast-furnaces at Burbach with successful results. All our machines returned.

Italian Front.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

ITALIAN FRONT COLLAPSES.

CONTINUED PROGRESS IN ALL SECTORS.

LONDON, November 1st.

A British Italian official message states that we have occupied Saffie.

The Tenth army has reached the line of Livorno from Saffie as far south as Brugherio.

The Third army is advancing rapidly to the south of the Oderzo—Porto Gradi railway.

The Fourth army has captured many important tactical positions in the Grappa region where the enemy is falling back.

The Tenth army's prisoners number over 13,000.

PRISONERS, GUNS AND BOOTY.

LONDON, November 1st.

An Italian official message states that under the impetus of the Fourth Army in the Grappa region, the enemy's front has collapsed. Prisoners are descending the mountains in flocks. All the enemy's artillery here has been captured.

The Twelfth army is advancing in the Piave Valley.

The Eighth army is descending the Piave Valley towards Belluno.

Our advance guards have entered Motta di Livenza and Torre di Mosto. Captures of prisoners, guns and booty are announced everywhere.

THE ITALIAN ADVANCE.

PARIS, October 31st.

In Italy, the Austrian Army is not broken, but is giving way astride the Piave.

The Twelfth Army under the French General Grassini, commanding a mixed army, is advancing along the river in the direction of Feltrina.

FIFTY THOUSAND PRISONERS.

LONDON, October 31st.

An Italian official message says:—Our success is assuming great proportions.

The routed enemy is retreating eastward of the Piave and is hardly able to withstand our close pressure on the mountain front. Hostile masses are thronging the mountain valleys or are attempting to reach the crossings of the Tagliamento.

Prisoners, guns and material depots almost intact are falling into our hands.

We have completed the capture of the Cesen massif. Fighting is proceeding for the possession of the gorge of Kuero.

Elsewhere we have captured the spur between the Follina Basin and the Piave Valley. We have occupied Serravalle and are advancing towards the high plain of Consiglio. The Tenth Army has reached Livorno.

We have resumed the attack in the Grappa region and have carried Col Capria, Col Bonate, Asolome, Prassolan, Solarolo salient and Monte Spioncica.

The prisoners exceed 50,000 and the guns captured number 300.

The Near East.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BRITISH VICTORY IN MESOPOTAMIA.

SEVEN THOUSAND TURKS CAPTURED.

LONDON, October 31st.

A Mesopotamia official message says:—Fighting on the Tigris, begun on the 24th inst., ended on the 30th inst. with the capture of the entire Turkish force there. The prisoners are estimated at about seven thousand, and a large quantity of war material was also captured.
